Azienda Agricola Elio Altare

La Morra

From Silvia Altare

Dolcetto d'Alba DOC, Elio Altare, 2017

75

"It has been a stellar year, a vintage to be remembered for ages. The grapes were perfectly mature during the growing season and at harvest the only thing we had to do was to pick beautiful healthy grapes and eat paninis. We are happy to releasing some juicy powerful Dolcetto".

Langhe Barbera DOC "Larigi", Elio Altare, 2015

180

"This is a radiant vintage with serious potential, and the Langhe wines are deep, rich and powerful".

Barolo DOCG "Arborina", Elio Altare, 2014

230

Barolo DOCG "Cannubi", Elio Altare, 2014

450

"It is a "contadino" vintage with severely reduced yields, and our Barolo production dropped about 40%. The allocation numbers that we are offering you is way lower than usual but we made some of the best 2014's you will taste. These are the vintages that separate the average Barolo producers from the best. Despite of the challenges, 2014 is an elegant vintage for Nebbiolo with high-acid, vibrant, and fresh wines. The transparency of the crus and villages are on point. The Barolo 2014 are medium in body, and offer us a "ready to drink now" vintage. I would call it a vintage for pleasure".

Barolo DOCG "Cerretta" Vigna Bricco Riserva, 2012

280

"It is a vintage of mid-weight Barolos that reflect the freshness and overall structure of a cooler year. As usual Barolo Cerretta Vigna Bricco shows the darker more powerful side of Nebbiolo that is so typical of Serralunga. Cerretta was always produced following the "riserva" guide lines but now we actually decided to make it more clear by officially adding the classification "riserva" on the label. I believe this cru has the potential to turn heads like the many stunning vintages of Brunate that Altare has been known for over the years. This is my baby and my first vintage at the winery."
